Changes In Precincts To Cause Scramble

All terms of Town Meeting members in precincts 1-3-4-6-7-9-11 and 14. will expire at the Town Election on March 6, according to recent action taken by the Board of Selectmen.

Notified officially by the Town Clerk, these candidates will now be required to file forms for "re-election" and must give written notice of intent to run for Town Meeting Member, by 5 p.m. Jan. 23. This is expected to create a mad scramble for the available seats.

At the meeting of the

Youth Service Board Made Official

By authority of the Town Manager's Act, Town Manager Edward C. Monahan approved the inclusion of the Youth Services Board as an official department within the structure of the Town Gov-ernment, following a recommendation by the Board of

Monday night. This action will make it unnecessary for the Youth Board to seek appropria tions on an annual basis through Town Meeting vote. The expenses will now be included under Article 26 of the General Budget. In a report to the Selectmen, Chairman Anthony Di-Natale explained that the Youth Services Board had "followed the mandate given three years ago to service problems relating to the children and youth in Town and to advise other agencies regarding such 'matter."

DiNatte reported that this has been accomplished at a minimum cost to the Town. He explained that the Board received $26,000 in grants and have increased the staff from a part-time director in 1962, to a present full-time director and two social workers. They will receive $16,000 for 1965, plus $6,000 assured to them by June, bringing the total to $22,000. He stated the cost of the Board for 1962 was $1.048; 1963, $4.534; and for 1964, $8,234. The anticipated cost for 1965 was not likely to exceed $12,000. Chairman John Bullock asked if the entire cost would be borne by the Town and DiNatale explained that the local Board is included in the State Department of Youth Services and allotments are set up on a "matching fund"

DiNatale outlined the work accomplished by the Board and stated that 118 active cases were handled this year. not including parents and members of the families of the youngsters relped. Director Arthur Johnson inserted the notation that the figures had climbed to 123 to date.

change of Protestant ministers of the town, sponsored by the Arlington Ministers' association, will take place on Sunday, Jan. 10, at morning Services in the Protestant

The following schedule will be observed, Rev. William W. Lewis at Pleasant St. Congregational; Rev. Witbur D. Canaday at Calvary Method-

It was estimated that there is an untapped pool of nearly 300 maladjusted youngsters in Arlington who need help and who constitute an "idle and wasting population".

Describing the Board as "not miracle workers", Di-Natale/ commented on the widespread praise received by the local group was a tribute to the Town. He stated that no other community has this type of service.

He cited the statistics showing that in 1963, 80 boys and 4 girls from the Town were officially com-plained of in the courts, During 1964, this figure was cut in half.

Selectman Joseph Greeley complimented the Board and cited the business-like manner in which Director Johnson handled cases. He described the work of the Youth Board as "tragic but vital".

ing equipment at the Arlington Telephone Central Office,

Dale. 135 Scituate st., resulted in restoration of service to normal in about an hour. First indication of trouble came at 7:03 p.m. at the height of the evening busy period according to Telephone Manager George V. Delle.

Two-way

Two way radio communication was immediately established by telephone emergency crews between Symmes Hospital and 67 Pleasant street. Police Chief Albert Rvan and Fire Chief John Cunniff immediately dispatched a radio crew to the telephone exchange to provide emergency two-way radio communication with Fire and Police headquarters. Additional stand by Telephone Co. radio crews were made immediately available and ready for any emergency The trouble condition occurred in narts of the central office equipment in the Mission 3 and Mission 8 exchanges known as Markers, Delle stated.

Basic Part

"These markers are a basic common part of the equipment which establishes nearly instantaneous telephone connections in this type of office. Several markers were out of service Monday evenng for approximately as hour. This resulted in an overload on the markers which remained in service and caused the service slow down. Positive action has already been taken to prevent recurrance of this condition.' Normal service was restored in about an hour. In addition to wire chief Dale, plant service manager Leo G. Redmond, switchmen Bernard Benoit, Thomas .Gilligan, Thomas Lawn and Clay Stahl, together with testmen John Callahan and John McFarland, were the men on duty at the time of the emergency.

were made by one who has observed with interest the Town's new communications system, and how it has served in two recent emergencies.]

The Town of Arlington Municipal Radio Communications System installed three years ago at a cost of approximately $50,000 with a substantial matching fund from the Federal Government, proved its great worth Monday night when practically all the telephones in the Town were completely out for over an hour as the result of a major breakdown at the Pleasant st. facilities of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Contact To Symmes

A similar broadcasting unit was also set up at the Symmes hospital by the telephone company. Meanwhile, town personnel at the Manager's office. Police and Fire Depts., D.P.W. and Civil Defense, stood by to handle emergency calls.

Two years ago when the Reservoir Dam broke down, a major flood disaster was averted by the effectiveness of the communication system. And again last Monday the system proved its worth.

The performance of this system under these two circumstances should be a source of great consolation and confidence to the residents of the town of Arlington because, come what may in disaster and emergencies, there is ample assurance that the system will function effectively or the protection of lives and property.

It would appear to the writer of this news piece that the people of the town owe a debt of gratitude to their public officials for their foresight and vision when they installed the town's communication system.

Such gratitude would include among its recipients the original study committee authorized by the Town Meeting that made the original recommendations, the Town Manager who originally supported the Study Committee's recommendations, the Board of Selectmen and the Finance Committee and the Town Meeting itself for implementing such recommendations by their support and approval of the original appropriations, and finally the Civil Defense Director who designed the system, supervised its installation and who continues to "mother" it at peak efficiency during normal emergency operating periods. If would also appear to this observer that few, if any communities in the state are as well prepared in the municipal radio systems as is Arlington to function in the public interest during local emergencies.

PARMENTER PTA The Parmenter PTA will meet on Jan. 12 to discuss the Town Meeting and issues which pertain to the school system. A panel will conduct a question and answer period. Present will be assistant Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Lawrence Anderson; School Committee member May Porteus, Selectman John Bilafer and Finance Committee member, George Rugg.

Six Hurt On New Year's Day

Four accidents on New Year's Day sent six persons to Symmes hospital for treatment.

Treated by Dr. Daguillard was Peter E. Johnson, 31 Summit st., as a result of a collision with a parked car, owned by Frank E. Belcastro. 75 Williams st., in front of 82 Overlook rd., according to the police report. John J.: McSweeney, 33 Purity Spring rd., Burlington, was traveling westerly at Rawson rd., and was in collision, according to police, with a car operated by Thomas G. Ashe, 122 Rawson Passengers Bridget Mc-Sweeney, 24, and Kevin Mc-Sweeney, 13 months, were treated at Symmes by Dr. Daguillard for lacerations. Also treated was Mary Sullivan, 16, 15 Murray Hill rd., Cambridge, for abrasions to both legs.

A car operated by Michael D. Rosa, 34 Rawson rd., Lexington, was in collision, according to police, at .6:18 p.m., with an unoccupied ear owned by Robert Raie on Park ave. The driver was treated for lip lacerations. Helen P. Dutton, 106 Bartlett ave., operating a car, traveling southerly on Hemlock st., according to police, was in collision with a utility pole at 70 Hemlock st., and snapped the pole off at the base. She received treatment at Symmes.

According to police, a Pown truck, upgrated on Jan. 4, by Robert J. Mills, 59 Winter st., traveling easterly on Mass. ave., near Lockeland ave., allegedly went over the right foot of John Mulcahy, 14, of 80 Westminster ave., and the boy was treated by Dr. Mooney at Symmes.

Civil Rights Lecture

Water and Life in the Emerging Countries" is the subject of a talk to be given on Monday, Jan. 11, by Dr. Ronald T. ## Catholic Wins Leads League

Eight wins and no losses overall, and 6 wins and no losses in league play, that's the record of Arlington Catholic's basketball team after Christmas vacation results.

The league leagers beat a stubborn North Cambridge team, Dec. 23, 65-54, with Treanor leading the way with 20 points, followed by White with 17 and Dooley 15.

In the next game on Dec. 27, the local powerhouse put together its best attack of the season romping over Sacred Heart of Weymouth

Every member of the team scored in this game with Treanor again hitting for 20. White and Regan 14 and Siscuso and Pike with 8 each. Treanor with 22 points. White and Dooley with 10 and Regan with 6 led Catholic to a low-scoring win 53-43 over Our Lady's of Newton for its' eighth straight

At 6:30 p.m. the B.C. freshman hockey team with Arlington's Gordie Clark will oppose B.U. Pups who have Coach Bob Crocker, Dick De-Caprio and Earl Yunes all of Arlington. In the varsity game B.C. will have Arlington's great defenseman Allan Kierstead, now recovered from his ankle injury opposing "Skippy" Morgan and Shaun Quinlan. Quinlan will play if he shows Coach Kelley sufficient hustle.

A.C.H.S. JV Hoopsters Have 6-1 Mark

The J.V.'s started off the vacation action with a 51-31 romp over North Cambridge, with Bob Pihl leading the way with 13 points, followed by John Crowley with 10, Bob Greene 8, and Pete Flynn 7.

A Remarkable Job - - -

An old District loop rival Sacred Heart of Weymouth handed the locals their initial loss of the season 43-36 in overtime in the next game, despite 12 point efforts by Greene and Crowley.

However, vacation time basketball ended on a happy note with a 48-42 victory over Our Lady's of Newton with Crowley tallying 15 points, Greene 14 and Pihl

The Catholic juniors started off the season in impres### sive fashion drubbing Savio 35-19 with Kerwin and Greene scoring 9 points each. North Cambridge was the victim in the second game of the season by a 45-37 count with Crowley and Pihl scoring 10 points and Greene 9, The J.V.'s romped over Immaculate Conception of Revere 46-14 and St. Columbkille's 42-25 in their next two outings. Kerwin, Pihl and O'Brien tallied 8 points and Dick O'Keefe in the first of the two with Greene tallying points and Crowley in the second encounter.

Members of the J.V.'s include juniors Frank Kerwin, Bob Greene, John Crowley, Paul Delaney, Dick O'Keefe and Paul DeWolfe

SCHOOL and SPORTS

by Hal O'Brien

This is the third week in a row we can state that the high school teams are still on the win trail. The AHS varsity hockey team won its fifth game 4-1 over Brookline, while the frosh was tied by Medford.

The track team does quite well, when you see runners practicing in the halls and in any space that is available. This may be due to the school construction and the double sessions.

worth to the team was clear-ly shown Early in the sec-ond half he hit consecutive baskets for a 50-41 lead but shortly afterwards came out with his fourth foul. Nazarene steadily cut the lead away, tying the game at 69-

69 before Coach LaRochelle reinserted Hogan into the lineup. After giving up a lead basket, Merrimack came on to win 81-74 as Hogan helped regain control of the boards.

In the Stonehill game Merrimack took the lead 3-1 on a Hogan basket and was never caught as the Warriors won at Stonehill for the first time in the 16 year old series.

Hogan made six out of six won solidly.

The boys of the squad deserve a "lot" of credit for working out under adverse conditions. This is not a complaint from the boys or the coaches but an observation on my part.

· Hope the girls field hockey team has a fine time at their banquet Sunday night at the Elks home.

Wonder when the football team will get together and elect the captain or co-captains for next year's team, or could the team be toying with the idea of a captain for each game?

Francis Mulcahy, 156 Summer st., who played center at Berwick Academy last fall was awarded a football letter, along with Paul Revell of 14 Cedar ave.

Paul was a line-backer for Coach Dave Mortons regional lake champs. Paul will be remembered as a hockey defenseman in high school. Both boys left last week to report for the hockey team.

Looks as if Arlington will be well represented on Fr. Pollard's Boston College high school team with Paul Fitzpatrick, Al Bowman and Mike Casev all from here on his team. Mike is a brother of Mark Casey who plays for Xavier of Concord.

Tom Apprille of Decatur st., the goalie for the Merrimack Valley Chiefs played his first game last week in the new Billerica rink. This rink is the latest to be opened in this section and I wonder if Arlington will have its facility for next year.

Warren Lewis, Arlington and B.C. hockey great in the past, is now coaching Christopher Columbus High School in Boston. C. C. High is at the top of their league.

Melrose defeated Frank Finnegan's Winchester hockey team recently 7 to 3 for its seventh win. Frank who lives on Mt. Vernon st. is coaching his 13th club at Winchester. Last year he had a fine club but graduation took a heavy toll.

Coach George Lowder may teams in these parts but he sure turns out some great ones. A boy who bears watching is Pete Scully, younger brother of Capt. Leo of Harvard. Pete scored 10 points for Tufts freshman against Weslyan and did not play the entire game. On the team with Pete is Dave Harrington from Arlington, a guard.

We also have two trackmen from Arlington on the Tufts indoor track team, Clayton Zucker, a pole vaul-ter, and Clyde Ward, the captain-elect of the outdoor team who runs the 1000 yard and the mile.

Arlington's Lee Hogan Hogan took charge with has been turning in a remarkable job as the starting center for Merrimack College's Spowerful basketball team, now sporting a 5-1 record and their fourth consecutive Babson Invitational title.

A junior, Hogan has 97 points for the season, trailing only Co-Captain John Erickson, a senior from Everett, with 102 At 6-4 and 185 pounds. Hogan has the speed and agility needed by the Warriors as a pivotman as the team continues its rugged schedule against some of the best NCAA College Division teams on the East Coast.

In his last game before the Christmas break, Hogan riddled the defense of the tower ing Norwich Cadets for 30 points, the highest total scored by a Merrimack pivotman or forward in five years.

Although Norwich had men taller than Lee on the floor throughout the game, he connected for 13 field goals and four free throws for the highest total by a Merrimack player since guard Gerry Stopyra, now graduated, hit for 32 two years ago against weak Lowell Tech.

For Coach Bill LaRochelle of Merrimack, who has never had a losing season as a coach, the game was much more relaxing since Lee stayed out of foul trouble for the first time this year. Hogan's 16.2 per game average would pass the 30 mark if his average were figured out on a minutes played basis.

Hogan's ability to score in the clutch was shown against Norwich. After his second basket of the night boosted Merrimack to a 13-3 start, the tall Cadets made their only surge of the 94-73 game, cutting Merrimack's lead to 14-13 as they temporaily dominated the boards. At this critical point with the Warriors sagging, three baskets to a lone goal for Norwich and a 20-15 Warrior lead as he ran his streak to nine consecutive points for

Later in the half he ran four straight baskets to hold Norwich off from 30-19 to 38-28. At the half he had a point a minute, 20 of his team's 41 point total.

With only 5:49 remaining and a lead of 78-57, Lee came out to thunderous cheers to let his sub, sophomore Dick Babson Invitational, Lee's jump shot drew raves from Bentley coach Al Shields as Hogan hit on 14 of 18 field goal attempts in a fantastic display. His 28 point effort in 27 minutes of play helped crush the Falcons 97-68.

Although Merrimack was able to run roughshod over Bentley, leading 65-36 at one time, the Falcons have won all of their other eight games this season for an 8-1 record/ Against Bentley Hogan scored the first two Warrior baskets as Merrimack traffed only at 0-1 and 2 3, leading the rest of the way. At one point in the second half in a string of six Marrimack baskets. Lee scored three and assisted on two others. In the four games between the Bentley and Norwich contests, Lee fouled out only in the lone loss to powerful Assumption, conqueror of Providence in/a 19-2 season last year, as he was held to nine

In the other three Warrior wins he drew four fouls and was used less than half the game, caging eight points in 19 minutes against Eastern Nazarene in the Babson Invitational final, 12 points in 14 minutes at Stonehill, and 10 points in 13 minutes against Bridgeport, a powerful Tri-State Conference foe.
Against Nazarene, Lee's games of that year he scored 43 points, hitting a high of 13 against Suffolk. As a sophomore last year Lee's high was 23 against Acadia University, a Canadian team which Merrimack, whipped 69-47.

Yet this week Acadia will face Canisius and St. Bonaventure.

In the first game last year, also a Babson tournament game against Bentley, Lee caged 22 points. The Falcons have thus yielded 50 points to Lee in two tournament games. Except for the two osses to Merrimack, Bentley has a two year 19-2 intercollegiate varsity record. For the season as a sophomore Leo scored 227 points in 20 games for an 11.35 average but his value was even higher, for in two home wins over state college fives in which the Warriors hit 90 and 91 points; he scored but one free throw.

Three only teams which Merrimack lost to last year which checked Leo with less than double figures were Assumption and St. Michael's, two of New England's perennial best teams.

A.H.S. Presents 3-Part Assembly

It took three separate assemblies on December 23 to mark the beginning of the Christmas holidays at Arlington High, but every pupil in the school had a chance to attend one of them. In the morning, two assemblies were held, caring for the three unper classes; and in the early afternoon. a separate assembly was held for the fresh-

In one of the morning assemblies, the mixed chorus was featured, and in the other the girls' choir. In the afternoon / assembly, the freshman choir was the attraction. In each case traditional carols, both religious and secular, made up the bulk of the program. Featured were special numbers by the popular singing group, the Harmonettes, and an execllently produced "Christmas Suite" played by the orehes-

The choral numbers were under the direction of Mr. Richard McIlhenev and the orchestra was led by Richard Donnelly, Jr. of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., brother of the bride; Elliot S. Pratt Jr. of Nashua, N.H.; William O'Day of Cambridge: William Corbus. Dartmouth College; and Elliot S. Pratt III, Nashua, N.H., nephew of the bride, Junior usher.

Rev. Wallace Forgey performed the ceremony assisted by the Rev. Stuart Has-

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Donnelly wore a shocking pink sheath with matching hat and a corsage of white gardenias. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue brocade ensemble with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride graduated from the Mary Hitchock Memorial hospital in Hanover, N.H. and will attend Wayne State University in the fall. The bridegroom graduated from Dartmouth College and the Amos Tuck School of Business Administration, and is employed with Ford International in Dearborn, Michigan.

The wedding reception was held in the Sheraton Commander hotel in the George Washington ballroom. Following a wedding trip to Canada, the couple will live in Dearborn, Michigan.

Chamber of Commerce Essay Contest Winners Urge Local Shopping

bonds in the recent Essay Contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Milton Jay, 53 Highland ave., AHS senior, won a $100 bond in the High School category.

A tie was declared in the elementary category and both Elinor Gotsell and Jean Erickson wen $25 bonds.

Mary Ann Powers of Junjor High West won the $50 bond for the Junior High category. The contest was sponsored by the Chamber in cooperation with the School Department.

The winning essays follow.

By Mary Ann Powers Before you run off to someplace, several miles off, stop, and think. Why aren't you going shopping in your own town, with stores not more than a mile away? You may, in fact, live just around the corner, so why run off to some other town? Maybe you'll

One funior high and two say, "OH, the stores there Maybe he is a member of elementary school pupils won | are so much better." Have you checked closely? It's quite unlikely. People often miss the best things because they're right there under their noses! If this comes as a new idea to you, why not see if you can overcome this. Get into the habit of shopping right here, in our own town.

Did you ever realize how many extra advantages there are to shopping in Arlington? In many cases a local merchant is a resident, perhaps even a neighbor. He is someone you know, someone you can trust. A local merchant, if he is a resident, will quite naturally have the best interests of the town at heart. He being a fellow eitizen, will be more willing to aid you, and to give you bargains than an outsider.

Also, how could any Arlington tradesman, whether he lived in the town or not, not give you value for your money? If he is a resident you'll see him many places.

your church or lodge. You may see him at a P.T.A. meeting, at the Boy's Club, or in the bank.

If he is not a resident, you'll still see him on the street. A local merchant can't hide from you, and he knows it. Shopping in your town also creates a friendly atmosphere, a feeling of knowing each other is going to make a rewarding shop-

Maybe you say your town lacks stores. If you want a bookstore or a restaurant sitting around isn't going to do any good. Stores aren't going to open unless someone wants them, and if there is enough demand, such shops will mostlikely open up.

Then there is the tax receipt and job argument. This alone should be enough reason to patronize local stores. A merchant who is local is going to hire townspeople. Money makes money, and townspeople being paid wages by these merchants will have money to create and sustain still more businesses, making more jobs for residents, and so on. Although this creating. of more jobs and bringing more money into the comunity may seem the most important reason, there is another one. extremenly important, that all Arlingtonians should re-

Patronizing local merchants is important, very important, and should be taken seriously The impression made on visitors is your responsibility-It's you who sustain present stores through your taxes. It's you who creates new ones through your demands. If there are not enough stores in your town, it's the fault of you and you only. Shops don't exist just to be there. They exist for that all-important person, you. There is nothing sadder than seeing a fine store being forced to shut down. When you see a place know you are witnessing the dismal sight of a good store. that you have closed. Is this what we want to become of Arlington? for it to become a lifeless, dreary place? in the eyes of visitors, a town that 'was''? Of course not. We want our town to stay a lively, presperous town. So go out and patronize your local merchants. Have Arlington a town that "is" not "was". Make her a place so that you can say to outsiders, with pride; this, is my town.

By Eliner A. Gotsell

Our local merchant is a friend eager to help you help yourself. He first aids you by offering quality merchandise at reasonable prices right in our own town. I know this is true, not just because my mother says so, but because I have the family to prove it.

There are seven children at my house. For going back to school this year I needed only one new dress. The rest of my clothes were handed down to me from older sisters. You cannot do this with inferior merchandise:

Since I am the errand girl in my family it is my duty to ask-our local grocer for choice cuts of meat, when we are having special company to dinner. Then too, my mother does not have to spend weeks Christmas shopping, for she patronizes our local merchants. If they do not have an item on her list they very obligingly order it for her. Unlike my mother, Mrs. Nabor has to leave Lucy at my house while she shops in the city. One day Mrs. Nabor eould not find a particular brand of hair dye in any of the large stores. As a last resort she sent me to our local druggist. Sure enough, he

We should patronize our local merchants for many reasons. The local merchants pay taxes in Arlington, helping the home owner by lowering the tax rate. Therefore, they contribute to the support of our town.

Claire C. O'Neil, 55 Mott st., wife of the late Captain Robert B. O'Neil, U. S. Army, Ret., and mother of three children in the Arlington Schools, has announced her intention to seek election to the Arlington School Committee, due to the vacancy created when School Committeeman Daily moved out of state.

Claire, long active in school affairs has been a member of the Parent Teachers Association for 12 years and is presently on the Executive Board of both Junior High East and Hardy Elementary Schools.

Always interested in the youth of Arlington she is well known for her work as a charter member and first fund raising chairman of the Boys' Club Boosterettes.

In addition she is a Corporator of the Arlington Boys' Club, a Director in the Arlington Catholic Woman's Club and a Town Meeting Member in Precinct 4.

Mrs. O'Neil referred to her candidacy as a continuation of her service to the youth of this town and said, "To become a school committee member, is in itself, not enough in these time of complex educational problems.

"One must be able and willing to devote a great deal of time to this most important office. Should I be elected, as a member of the Arlington School Committee, pledge the same effort that I have put in to other endeavors which has been inthe interest of the children of Arlington.

"We, as parents, taxpayers, P.T.A., School Department or School Committee, are all accountable for the transition from children to responsible citizens. Let us invest wisely in youth - our profits will be great.

"I believe the standards set in educational policy making. in the next few years, will be of vital importance to the Town of Arlington and I earnestly desire to share in these decisions as a member of the Arlington School Committee.'
